Confirm your identity via Haka authentication

A student must confirm their student status to receive the student discounts on the Föli card. You can confirm that you are a student at a service point or at the Föli Shop via Haka authentication.

1. Register as a Föli Shop user.

2. Log in. Via the profile page, you can move to the Haka authentication process.

3. After you have confirmed your identity, you can load your travel card at a student discount. The discount is valid until the end of the academic year.

TIP!

Föli has 7 service points where you can buy a Föli card. Monitori Market Square serves customers at Aurakatu 8, Turku. www.foli.fi/en/customer-service
