ADVANCES IN HEALTH CARE SCIENCES CONFERENCE

Stockholm 14–15 November 2024

Research addressing challenges and future directions in health care

Register before august 29th without a conference fee!

Abstract submission for doctoral students and postdocs opens April 3rd

Registration opens June 12th

The conference for building networks between doctoral students, postdocs and researchers offers a great opportunity to:

- Gain more confidence and experience in presenting your research
- Earn a peer-reviewed poster presentation to your publication list and a participation certificate
- Learn about hot topics and current research of health care sciences
- Meet researchers from the Nordic countries and the Baltic Sea region in an international conference

The conference will be on site in Stockholm and is organized by Karolinska Institutet in a collaboration of the Research School of Health Science (FiH) and the Strategic Research Area Health Care Science (SFO-V) networking with the Baltic Sea Region.
