Distribution of doctoral dissertations – Guidelines for the doctoral candidates
(Annales Universitatis Turkuensis series, other series or other publisher)

The doctoral candidate is responsible for the distributing/delivery of their doctoral dissertation.

The doctoral dissertation has to be distributed/delivered as follows:

1) When the dissertation is published printed and also electronically in the University’s Publication Archive:
   - Feeniks Library 2 copies and voluntary copies to be sold at UTUShop (e.g. 5 copies)
   - The National Library of Finland 6 complementary copies (the printing house will deliver them to the Library)
   - Rector 1 copy
   - Faculty 1 copy
   - Opponent 1 copy
   - Custos 1 copy
   - Preliminary reviewer(s) 1-2 copies
   - The 3rd member of the Grading Committee 1 copy

2) When the dissertation is published printed only
   - Feeniks Library 2 copies and voluntary copies to be sold at UTUShop (e.g. 5 copies)
   - The National Library of Finland 6 complementary copies (the printing house will deliver them to the Library)
   - Rector 1 copy
   - Faculty 1 copy
   - Opponent 1 copy
   - Custos 1 copy
   - Preliminary reviewer(s)
   - The 3rd member of the Grading Committee 1 copy
   - 20 copies for public distribution.

3) When the dissertation is published electronically only, bounded paper copies with cardboard or plastic covers have to be delivered to:
   - Feeniks Library 2 copies
   - Faculty 1 copy
   - Opponent 1 copy
   - Custos 1 copy
   - The 3rd member of the Grading Committee 1 copy
   - A hyperlink to the dissertation for the preliminary reviewer (recommended)
   - Printout of the Finnish abstract to the Rector.

Delivering timetable

The electronically published dissertations have to be delivered as a publishable file (pdf) to the University’s Library 15 days before the public defence of the doctoral dissertation. If the dissertation is published only in print or both in print and electronically, the printed version has to be submitted to the University no later than 10 days before the dissertation defence by 12pm to the address: Feeniks Library, Yliopistonmäki, 20014 Turun yliopisto.

NB: The dissertation must be delivered to the Opponent(s) as soon as the final version is ready.
Delivering/mailing addresses for prints/copies

Feeniks Library
The copies are delivered to the library information desk (2nd floor) or posted to address Feeniks Library, Yliopistonmäki, 20014 Turun yliopiston

Faculty
The copies are delivered to the Signum Service Point (2nd floor) or posted to address Doctoral Training, Signum Service Point, 20014 Turun yliopiston

Rector
The copy is delivered to the information desk (1st floor) or posted to address University of Turku, Rector, Hämeenkatu 4, 20014 Turun yliopisto.

Opponent, Custos, 3rd member of the Grading Committee: for mailing addresses please turn to humpostgraduate@utu.fi if needed.

When published printed only, 20 copies for public distribution should be delivered to Signum Service Point, Koskenniemenkatu 4, 20014 Turun Yliopisto.

Publishing agreement

When publishing the doctoral dissertation an agreement on publishing must be drawn up and signed between the author and the university. When publishing the doctoral dissertation in Annales series agreement is signed at the library on behalf of the university.

When publishing in other series/by another publisher, publishing agreement will be signed by the Dean and the author. Publishing agreement must be delivered to the Faculty (to Signum Service Point) 15 days before the public defence at latest. Further inquiries: humpostgraduate@utu.fi.

About publishing please see Library’s guidelines https://utuguides.fi/c.php?g=657189&p=4624102#s-lg-box-14451150