

Academic Reading, Writing, and Reviewing

3-4 May 2022

The Faculty of Medicine Postgraduate Education Unit (PGE) and Finnish Doctoral Program in Oral Sciences FINDOS-Turku organize two day course "Academic Reading, Writing, and Reviewing". All doctoral candidates at the Faculty of Medicine are welcome to attend the course. Number of participants are not limited for the lectures, but participation in a group work on 4 May at 12:30-14:00 is limited to 30 people.

Course leader: Associate Professor Ulvi Gursoy, Institute of Dentistry

Credits: 1 ECTS

Learning outcomes: To produce scientific high-quality texts, researchers need to learn critical reading, thinking, and analyzing the literature. During this course, participants will develop their skills on analyzing the literature by learning critical reading and critical thinking. Moreover, they will understand the borders of plagiarism, salami slicing, and text recycling. Course will include a hands-on course, where participants will share ideas with lecturers on the basics of academic text writing.

Study methods: lectures and group work

Requirements: Active participation in the lectures and group work.
