

Minimum printing requirements for and distribution of dissertations from 1 October 2019 onwards
(The Annales Universitatis Turkuensis series, other series or other publisher)

Minimum printing requirements for and distribution of printed dissertations when the dissertation is also published electronically in the institutional repository of the University of Turku (delivered by the doctoral candidate):

- Feeniks Library 2 copies (of which 1 is a reading copy to be placed on display) and voluntary copies to be sold at UTUShop (e.g. 5 copies)
- The National Library of Finland 6 complementary copies (the printing house will deliver them to the Library)
- Rector 1 copy
- Faculty 1 copy
- Opponent 1 copy
- Custos 1 copy
- Preliminary reviewers and the possible members of the Examining Committee 2–6 copies
- Doctoral candidate's own copies 1–

Minimum printing requirements for and distribution of printed dissertations when the dissertation is NOT published electronically (delivered by the doctoral candidate):

- Feeniks Library 2 copies (of which 1 is a reading copy to be placed on display) and voluntary copies to be sold at UTUShop (e.g. 5 copies)
- The National Library of Finland 6 complementary copies (the printing house will deliver them to the Library)
- Rector 1 copy
- Faculty 1 copy
- Opponent 1 copy
- Custos 1 copy
- Preliminary reviewers and the possible members of the Examining Committee 2–6 copies
- Public distribution at dissertation defence 20 copies
- Doctoral candidate's own copies 1–

If the dissertation is published only electronically in the institutional repository of the University of Turku, the doctoral candidate delivers stapled paper copies with cardboard or transparent plastic covers as follows:

- Feeniks Library 2 copies (of which 1 is a reading copy to be placed on display)
- Faculty 1 copy
- NB: Additionally, the doctoral candidate delivers a printout of the Finnish abstract to the Rector.

In addition to the distribution above, the doctoral candidate will print and deliver dissertations to other possible parties according to their faculty's guidelines (not, however, to the faculty council members).
