Rules on student attendance

- Attendance at seminars, small groups, tutorials, demonstrations, school visits, and individual guidance is compulsory unless told otherwise.
- Teachers inform at the beginning of the courses if there is a possibility for substitutive assignment or not. Teachers are not obliged to set a student a substitutive assignment.
- It is however desired that a substitutive assignment would be set in cases where the student's absence is due to compelling reasons.
- Holiday trip or working is not considered to be such a case.
- If a student decides to prioritize free time activities over studies, they may not be able to take all the courses they originally selected.

Learning Agreement

- It is possible to make changes to the Learning Agreement
- Check the requirements from your home university when selecting courses (ECTS, grading)
- Get a signature from the study advisor of the faculty (education@utu.fi) → send the document to incoming@utu.fi AND to your home University
