

SYS-LIFE Training 10.4.2025

Career Management: How to become a Leader - Building Skills for Senior Jobs in Industry and Academia

Join us for a training session designed for postdoctoral researchers, focusing on career management and leadership skills for senior positions in industry and academia. The morning includes an opportunity to meet companies and network.

Programme

Place: Konttori, Hämeenkatu 9
Registration required, space for 30 people
Programme
8.00-8.30	Coffee and Welcome, Georges Kazan, SYS-LIFE Vice Director Introductions
8.30-10.30	Welcome to Konttori: Business & Academia cooperation, Antti Nuutinen Breakfast Meeting: Company Perspectives and SYS-LIFE pitches <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Company introductions (5 mins each) *Aurlide *Finnish Drug Discovery Center *Misvik *Orion *Radiometer *Revvity *Siemens *Uniogen • 9:20-9:50 Panel Session: Company representatives' experiences on leadership and skills for cross-over to industry • 10:00-10:30 SYS-LIFE Pitches (5*2 min + 4 min for questions and comments)
10.30-11.00	Break and Networking (possible to carry on the discussions)
11.00-11.30	'Managing a Project', Georges Kazan, SYS-LIFE Vice Director
11.30-12.30	Lunch (at participants' own expense)
12.30-13.30	Communication in the Workplace: Building Connections Through Interpersonal Skills, Tuula Hakkarainen, University Teacher
13.30-14.15	Postdoc Story: Career Moves from Academia to Industry, Kati Tarkkonen, Ph.D., Medical Advisor Oncology and Hematology, Sanofi
14.15-14.30	Coffee
14.30-15.00	Interdisciplinary Expansions of my Research, Suman Vimal, SYS-LIFE Researcher
15.00-15.15	Closing Remarks

SYS-LIFE, Systemic Approaches to Improve Cardiometabolic and Brain Health during Lifespan is Marie Skłodowska-Curie postdoctoral programme cofunded by University of Turku and European union (project 101126611) in 2023–2028.