

SYS-LIFE Training 23.10.2025:

Research Funding and Grant Writing

Place: Lecture Hall A112, Arcanum building

Programme

- 9.00-9.05 Welcome words, Georges Kazan, SYS-LIFE Vice Director
- 9.05-9.50 Research Council of Finland and Winter Call 2026, Kalle-Antti Suominen, Professor, Chair, The Scientific Council for Natural Sciences and Engineering, Research Council of Finland
- 9.50-10.00 Break
- 10.00-10.30 Writing a grant for Research Council of Finland, Pieta Mattila, Senior Research Fellow, Institute of Biomedicine, InFLAMES Group Leader
- 10.30-11.00 Wins, Losses, and Lessons: Research Council of Finland & TCSMT Collegium, Johannes Nokkala, Collegium Researcher, Laboratory of Theoretical Physics
- 11.15-12.15 Lunch (Piccu Maccia)
- 12.15-12.45 Planetary Health: Defining the Concept, Saska Tuomasjukka, Senior Researcher, Nutrition and Food Research Center (NuFo)
- 12.45-13.30 Brainstorming: Summer School 2026
- 13.30-13.45 Coffee Break
- 13.45-15.00 SYS-LIFE Workshop: Making Your Proposal Stand Out: Abstract, Background, Objectives & Impact

SYS-LIFE, Systemic Approaches to Improve Cardiometabolic and Brain Health during Lifespan is Marie Skłodowska-Curie postdoctoral programme cofunded by University of Turku and European union (project 101126611) in 2023–2028.