

SYS-LIFE Training 26.9.2025:

Multilevel Science Policy and Research Impact

Place: Lecture Hall Lähitapiola, Turku School of Economics

Programme

- 9.00-9.10 Welcome words, Markus Juonala, SYS-LIFE Director
- 9.10-10.00 The UTU Strategic Multidisciplinary Themes Come Alive: What, Why and How to Get Involved, Soile Haverinen, Head of Unit, Research Affairs, University of Turku
- 10.00-10.15 Break
- 10.15-11.00 Making Noise for Science, Personal Approach, Jukka Westermarck, Research Director, Turku Bioscience Centre, Professor, Institute of Biomedicine
- 11.00-11.30 EU Science and RDI Policy, Anniina Jaako, Head of EU Affairs, Universities of Turku, and Åbo Akademi, Universities of Applied Sciences Turku and Novia
- 11.30-12.30 lunch
- 12.30-15.00 SYS-LIFE Workshop: Impact & Argument
- 14.00-14.15 Coffee break

SYS-LIFE, Systemic Approaches to Improve Cardiometabolic and Brain Health during Lifespan is Marie Skłodowska-Curie postdoctoral programme cofunded by University of Turku and European union (project 101126611) in 2023–2028.