

TSE's minimum printing requirements for and distribution of printed dissertations when the dissertation is also published electronically in the University's Publication Archive:

Distribution	Minimum printing requirements
Feeniks Library (doctoral candidate delivers to the library service desk: Feeniks Library, 2nd floor, University hill)	2–7 copies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2 copies Feeniks library (of which 1 is a reading copy to be placed on display)</li> <li>• voluntary copies sales reserve (utushop)</li> </ul>
Free copies of National Library (the printing house will deliver these to the National Library):	6 copies
Faculty (Turku School of Economics) (Doctoral candidate delivers to the TSE's InfoDesk 10 days before the public defense): Remember to tell Infodesk if your thesis is published electronically or not!	3 copies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 1 copy for the Rector of UTU</li> <li>• 1 copy Coordinator of the Doctoral Programme</li> <li>• 1 copy to Pori Unit</li> <li>• (copies for the audience)</li> </ul>
Copies for the public examination:	3–5 copies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 1–2 copies for the opponent(s)</li> <li>• 1 copy custos</li> <li>• 1–2 copies for the preliminary examiners</li> </ul>
In total (minimum amount):	14–21 copies
In addition: Doctoral candidate decides how many copies s/he wants to print for her/himself. In addition to author's copies, doctoral candidate takes into account also partners in cooperation, such as companies, sponsors, other stakeholders as well as supervisors. It is recommended to consult supervisors about the amount of copies for distribution to the audience. One can always print more than the required minimum.

Minimum printing requirements for and distribution of printed dissertations, when the dissertation is NOT published electronically:

Distribution (doctoral candidates delivers)	Minimum printing requirements
Feeniks Library (doctoral candidate delivers to the library service desk: Feeniks Library, 2nd floor, University hill)	2–7 copies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2 copies Feeniks library (of which 1 is a reading copy to be placed on display)</li> <li>• voluntary copies sales reserve (utushop)</li> </ul>
Free copies of National Library (the printing house will deliver these to the National Library):	6 copies
Faculty (Turku School of Economics) (Doctoral candidate delivers to the TSE’s InfoDesk 10 days before the public defense): Remember to tell Infodesk if your thesis is published electronically or not!	24 copies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 1 copy for the Rector of UTU</li> <li>• 1 copy Dean</li> <li>• 1 copy Vice Dean</li> <li>• 1 copy Coordinator of the Doctoral Programme</li> <li>• 20 copies for distribution to the audience (of which one is sent to Pori Unit)</li> </ul>
Copies for the public examination	3–5 copies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 1–2 copies for the opponent(s)</li> <li>• 1 copy custos</li> <li>• 1–2 copies for the preliminary examiners</li> </ul>
In total (minimum amount):	35–42 copies
In addition: Doctoral candidate decides how many copies s/he wants to print for her/himself. In addition to author’s copies, doctoral candidate takes into account also partners in cooperation, such as companies, sponsors, other stakeholders as well as supervisors. It is recommended to consult supervisors about the amount of copies for distribution to the audience. One can always print more that the required minimum.	