The Faculty, the Academy Research Project How to Rule, and the Constituting Control project hosting professor Frankenberg will present the following program:

Thursday 13 December 2012

9.30-11.30 A (Legal) Critique of Political Technology

Place: Calonia 2

A public lecture by Günter Frankenberg

The talk offers a critical analysis of a style of governance characterized by an engineering mentality and four variations/paradigms of method (Machiavellian, Hobbesian, Lockean, Foucaultian), each with a tactical relationship to law-rule/democracy, illustrated through the Euro-savings policy

12 -13.30 Lunch Break

14-17 Constituting Control Workshop

Place: seminar room 6, Calonia 3rd floor

15.30 Coffee Break

Friday 14 December 2012

9.30-11.30 Graduate Research Meeting with Günter Frankenberg

Place: seminar room 6, Calonia 3rd floor

12-13.30 Brownbag-Lunch Discussion
